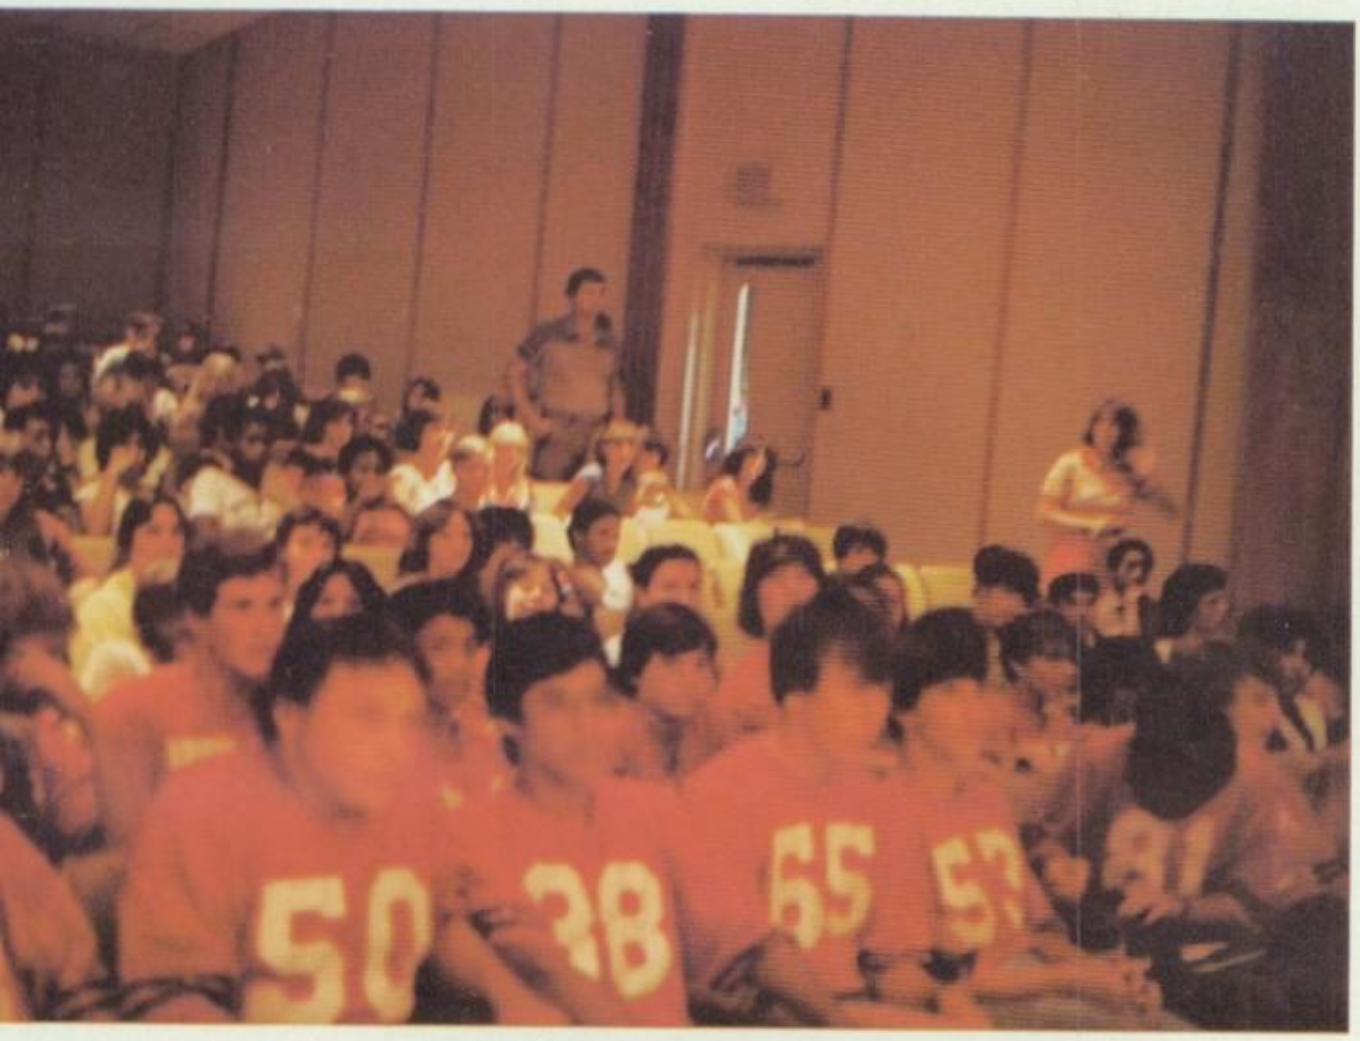
The Eagle
Butner School
Cromwell, Okla.

1982-83 Eagle Dedication

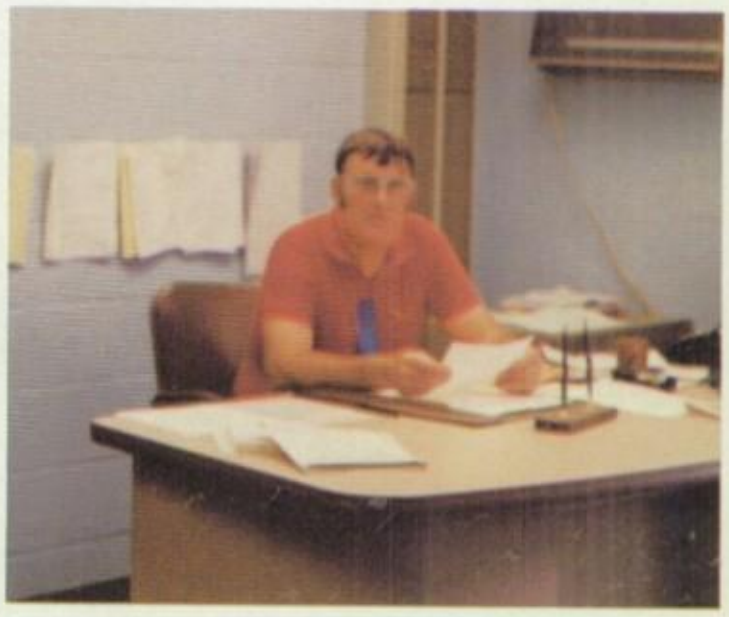
Sandra Tucker

It is with deep gratitude that we dedicate this Eagle yearbook to Mrs. Sandra Tucker who has given so much of her time to her students. She can brighten your days and when you need some help she won't say no, no matter how many things she may have to do. She has a warm smile and friendly word for everyone. We'd like to thank her for all her effort and hard work. This is our way of saying thank you for being not only a good teacher but also a great friend. For this, we, the Butner Annual Staff, dedicate our 1982-83 Eagle to Mrs. Tucker.

Cromwell: We Put It on the Map



The school doors opened, and back to school we came. As the students adjusted to teachers and textbooks, summer experiences were exchanged to help ease the transition. We began working on a strong tradition of quality for Butner School. We knew that people couldn't help but recognize us because through our accomplishments as a school and within the community, we put Cromwell on the map.



What Do You Do After 3:25 P.M.?

BHS students live happy, busy lives. Some go to see that special person, while others go and have a good time with friends.

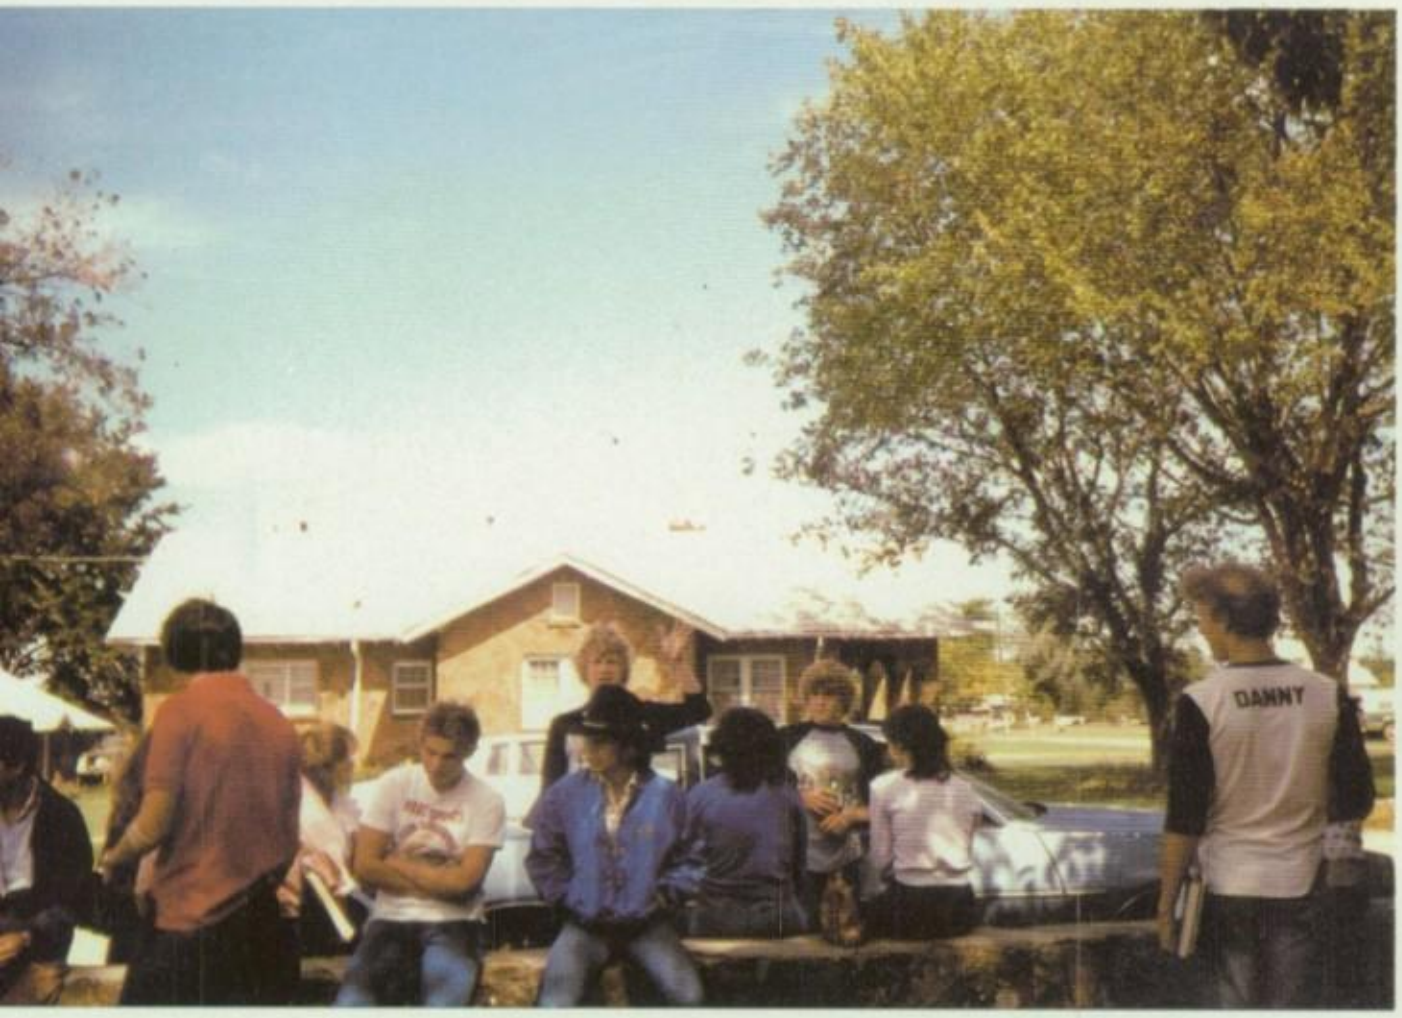
Pig Out! The Diets Die!!

Lunch is one of the favorite subjects around Butner. Whether it be eating in the lunchroom like David, Shannon, Rodney, and Robert or walking down to the store as Sherena, Carolyn and Sonya rather do or just generally pigging as Mrs. Nelson illustrates so naturally. Then as the lunch hour is quickly coming to an end High School students can be seen lazing around on the wall and grade school getting a drink before going back to the hardships of the classroom.



Eagles Just

Foolin' Around

What's Your Style?

Odd Couples and Odd Balls

As you know there are many odd couples and odd balls running around Butner. Here are just a few of them.
